

Code of Internal Procedures and Conduct for Regulating,
Monitoring and Reporting Trading by Designated Persons

PREAMBLE

Insider trading means trading in Securities of a company by its Directors, Employees, Promoters or other Insiders based on Unpublished Price Sensitive Information. Such dealing by Insiders/ designated persons erodes the investors' confidence in the integrity of the management and is unhealthy for the capital markets.

The Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI), in its endeavor to protect the interests of investors in general, had formulated the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 to put in place a framework for prohibition of insider trading in securities and to strengthen the legal framework thereof. These regulations came into force with effect from 15th May, 2015 and the same were made applicable to all companies whose securities are listed or proposed to be listed on a Stock Exchange.

- d) Demarcation of the various departments as inside area may be implemented by the Company.
- e) In exceptional circumstances employees from the public areas may be brought “over the wall” and given confidential information on the basis of “need to know” criteria.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Code/Regulations, an unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would:-

- i. entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company;
- ii. not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board of Directors may determine to be adequate and fair to cover all relevant and material facts.

For purposes of sub-clause (3.5), the Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the purpose of sub-clause (3.5), and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

- Structured Digital Database

The Company will maintain an electronic record containing the nature of UPSI, the name, PAN / any other identifier authorized by law (in case PAN is not available) and such other details of persons who shared the information and name, PAN / any other identifier authorized by law (in case PAN is not available) and such other details of such person with whom UPSI is shared under the provisions of Clause 3 of this Code. Such databases shall be maintained internally with adequate internal controls and checks such as time stamping and audit trails to ensure non-tampering of the database.

The Heads of the departments / functions and / or Designated Persons who share UPSI for legitimate purposes will be responsible for reporting the aforementioned details as per Insider Trading Regulations from time to time, in the Digital Database to the Compliance Officer:

It should be ensured that in addition to obtaining the above details, confidentiality agreements are entered into with or notice is served on such persons with whom UPSI is shared for legitimate purposes before sharing such information.

The Audit Committee shall review on an annual basis the compliance with the provisions of the SEBI PIT Regulations and verify that the systems for internal control are adequate and operating effectively.

The Board of Directors shall ensure that the structured digital database is preserved for a period of not less than eight years after completion of the relevant transactions and in the event of receipt of any information from the Board regarding any investigation or enforcement proceedings, the relevant information in the structured digital database shall be preserved till the completion of such proceedings.

- (vi) not entail Trading in securities for market abuse; and

The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan without being entitled to either deviate from it or execute any Trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan. However, the Implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the plan, the Insider is in possession of any UPSI and the said information has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation. The commencement of the Plan shall be deferred until such UPSI becomes generally available information.

6. TRADING RESTRICTIONS

All Designated Persons shall be subject to trading restrictions as enumerated below: -

Trading Window

“Trading window” refers to the period during which the Company's securities can be traded. The period prior to declaration of unpublished price sensitive information is particularly sensitive for transactions in the Company's securities. This sensitivity is due to the fact that the Designated Persons will, during that period, often possess unpublished price sensitive information.

During such sensitive times, Designated Persons will have to forego the opportunity of trading in the Company's securities. The Designated Persons shall not trade in the securities of the Company when the trading window is closed. The period during which the trading window is closed shall be termed as prohibited period.

Trading Window and Window Closure:

- i. When the trading window is closed, the Designated Persons shall not trade in the Company's securities in such period, provided that this restriction shall not be applicable if the trade has been done in accordance with an approved trading plan.
- ii. All Designated Persons shall conduct all their trading in the securities of the Company only in a valid trading window and shall not trade in the securities of the Company during the periods when the trading window is closed or during any other period as may be specified by the Company from time to time.

The trading window can be, inter alia, closed:-

- i. From 1st day immediately after end of the quarter or such other day as may be decided by the Compliance Officer till the end of 48 (forty-eight) hours after the financial results (quarterly, half yearly and annually) are submitted to the Stock Exchanges.
- ii. Any other period that may be designated by the Compliance Officer in case of any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information including periods prior to meetings where the following are proposed to be considered:
  - Declaration of dividends (interim and final);
  - Changes in Capital Structure by way of public/ rights/ bonus/ preferential, etc;
  - Amalgamation, mergers, de-mergers, acquisitions, delisting, disposals, expansion of business and such other transactions;
  - Changes in Key Managerial Personnel;
  - such other information as may be specified by the Compliance Officer from time to time;
  - such other period(s) as may be decided and notified by the Compliance Officer.

The trading window restrictions mentioned this sub-clause shall not apply in respect of-

- a) Off-market Inter-se transfer between insiders;
- b) Transaction through Block deal window mechanism between insiders;
- c) Transaction due to statutory or regulatory obligations;
- d) Trade pursuant to duly approved Trading plan;
- e) Creation/ release of pledge for bona fide purpose such as raising of funds;
- f) Transaction pursuant to the exercise/ grant/ sale of stock options

Transactions which are undertaken in accordance with respective regulations made by the Board such as acquisition by conversion of warrants or debentures, subscribing to rights issue, further public issue, preferential allotment or tendering of shares in a buy- back offer, open offer, delisting offer or transactions which are undertaken through such other mechanism as may be specified by the Board from time to time.

- iii. The Compliance Officer shall intimate the closure of trading window to the Designated Persons or class of Designated Persons, as the case may be, when he determines that Designated Persons or class of Designated Persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such unpublished price sensitive information relates.
- iv. The Designated Persons, to whom closure of trading window may be notified, are also prohibited from communicating the notification of such closure of trading window to any other person.
- v. The trading window may, as per the directions of the Compliance Officer, also be applicable to any person having contractual or fiduciary relation with the Company, such as Auditors, Accountancy firms, Law firms, Analysts, Consultants etc., assisting or advising the Company.
- vi. Irrespective of whether such communication has been received or not, Designated Persons governed by this Code shall mandatorily verify with the Compliance Officer on the status of the Trading Window before undertaking any Trades in the Securities of the Company. Ignorance of the closure of the Trading Window or non-receipt of communication of closure of Trading Window shall not justify any Trades undertaken by Designated Persons during Quiet Period.
- vii. Every Designated Person should advise his/ her Immediate Relatives of the closure of trading window during which Trading in the Securities of the Company is prohibited.
- viii. The Compliance Officer after taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, shall decide the timing for re-opening of the trading window, however in any event it shall not be earlier than 48 hours after the information becomes generally available.

Contra Trade

- i. All Designated Persons who buy or sell any number of shares of the Company shall not enter into an opposite transaction i.e. sell or buy any number of shares during the next six months following the prior transaction, except where the restrictions on contra trade shall not be applicable where such trade is carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan or for trades pursuant to exercise of stock options. Derivative contract that is cash settled on expiry shall be considered to be a contra trade.

- ii. The compliance officer may grant relaxation from strict application of such restriction for reasons to be recorded in writing provided that such relaxation does not violate these regulations.
- iii. In case of any contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the Act.
- iv. The gap between clearance of accounts by audit committee and board meeting should be as narrow as possible and preferably on the same day to avoid leakage of material information.
- v. In case, the Designated Persons deal in any Securities of the Company through his/her portfolio manager/ investment manager, the same shall be disclosed to the Compliance Officer and restrictions relating to Trading in Securities of the Company under this Code will also apply to the trading in securities of the company through his/her portfolio manager/ investment manager.

PRE-CLEARANCE OF TRADES

- i. Designated Persons including their immediate relatives shall conduct their trading in the securities of the Company when the trading window is open.
- ii. Designated Persons including their immediate relatives shall not be entitled to trade in securities without obtaining pre- clearance from the Compliance Officer, if :

The market value of securities involved in aggregate of such trading in a calendar quarter in one or more transactions exceeds an amount of Rs. 10,00,000/- (Rupees Ten lakhs).

It is clarified that the threshold limit specified above shall be applicable to gross market value of the transactions executed during the relevant calendar quarter.

- iii. The Designated Persons will have to obtain pre-clearance for the following transactions undertaken during the closure of Trading Window as per Clause 5 above, irrespective of the value of the proposed trade:
  - a) Off-market Inter-se transfer between insiders;
  - b) Transaction through Block deal window mechanism between insiders;
  - c) Transaction due to statutory or regulatory obligations;
  - d) Trade pursuant to duly approved Trading plan;
  - e) Creation/release of pledge for bona fide purpose such as raising of funds;

- f) Transaction pursuant to the exercise of stock options;
  - g) Derivative transactions in the securities of the Company.
- iv. However, no designated persons including their immediate relatives shall be entitled to apply for pre-clearance of any proposed trade if such designated persons are in possession of unpublished price sensitive information even if the trading window is not closed and hence he shall not be allowed to trade.
- v. Pre-Clearance to deal in any securities of Company shall not be given to the applicant if the Trading Window is closed for such applicant or if the Compliance Officer has reasonable cause to believe that such applicant is in possession of UPSI.
- vi. Pre-Clearance shall not be given to any designated person who is aware /expected to be aware of one or more of the events mentioned in (iii) above, due to his involvement in the proposed transaction or has been notified by the Compliance Officer to such effect, even though full details may not have been disclosed to him on the principle of 'need to know' basis.
- vii. Pre-clearance shall not be required for the following transactions:
- a. transactions pursuant to Transmission of shares in accordance with applicable law;
  - b. transactions involving transfer of Securities from Depository Participant to another provided that the shareholder and the beneficial owner of such Securities do not change; and
  - c. transactions pursuant to merger, demerger, or any other Court Order
- viii. Prior to approving any Trades, the Compliance Officer shall be entitled to seek any further declarations as he may deem fit from the applicant. He shall also have regard to whether any such declaration is reasonably capable of being rendered inaccurate. In case the Compliance Officer is of the opinion that the proposed Trade is on basis of possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information or he has a reason to believe that the proposed Trade is in breach of this Code or the Insider Trading Regulations, he will not grant approval against the said pre-clearance application and shall convey the reasons.
- ix. In the absence of the Compliance Officer due to leave etc., the Chief Financial Officer and in his absence the Executive Director shall discharge the function referred in Clause 6.4 of this code.
- x. If a trading window closure is announced after the grant of pre-clearance but during the validity period of such pre-clearance, the pre-clearance shall immediately become void prospectively. Transactions already entered into prior to the announcement of the Trading window closure, will however not be considered to be in violation of this Code.

- xi. Persons to whom this Code applies must keep confidential the fact that they are intending to deal or that they have applied for clearance to deal or the clearance is granted/refused by the Compliance Officer.
- xii. Pre- Clearance shall not be given to any designated person during any period when the Compliance Officer otherwise has reasons to believe that the proposed dealing is in breach of this Code, or SEBI Regulations.

Pre-trading procedure

- i. An application may be made in the prescribed Form (Annexure 1) to the Compliance officer indicating the estimated number of securities that the Designated Person intends to trade in, the details as to the depository with which he has a security account, the details as to the securities in such depository mode and such other details as may be required by any rule made by the company in this behalf.
- ii. An undertaking (Annexure 2) shall be executed in favour of the Company by such Designated Person incorporating, inter alia, the following clauses, as may be applicable:

In addition, the names of educational institutions from which designated persons have graduated and names of their past employers shall also be disclosed on a one time basis.

Explanation - The term "material financial relationship" shall mean a relationship in which one person is a recipient of any kind of payment such as by way of a loan or gift during the immediately preceding twelve months, equivalent to at least 25% of such designated person annual income but shall exclude relationships in which the payment is based on arm's length transactions.

In case a designated person resigns or retires from the services of the Company, all information which is required to be collected from such designated person should be collected till date of service of such employees with the company. Upon resignation from service of designated person, Company should maintain the updated address and contact details of such designated person. The Company should make efforts to maintain updated address and contact details of such persons for one year after resignation from service. Such data should be preserved by the company/ intermediary/ fiduciary for a period of 5 years.

G. Records of disclosures received by the Company

The Compliance officer shall place before the Chairman of the Audit Committee or to the Chairman of the Board of Directors, on yearly basis, all the details of the trading in securities of the Company, the accompanying documents that such persons had executed under the aforesaid pre-clearance/trading procedure and violations thereof, if any.

8. PROTECTION AGAINST RETALIATION AND VICTIMIZATION

Employees will be protected against any discharge, termination, demotion, suspension, threats, harassment, directly or indirectly or discrimination who files a Voluntary Information Disclosure Form, irrespective of whether the information is considered or rejected by the Board or he or she is eligible for a Reward under these regulations, by reason of:

- a) Filing a Voluntary Information Disclosure Form under these regulations;
- b) Testifying in, participating in, or otherwise assisting or aiding the Board in any investigation, inquiry, audit, examination or proceeding instituted or about to be instituted for an alleged violation of insider trading laws or in any manner aiding the enforcement action taken by the Board; or
- c) Breaching any confidentiality agreement or provisions of any terms and conditions of employment or engagement solely to prevent any employee from cooperating with the Board in any manner.

Provided that such protection shall not be available for any employee who files or threatens to file Voluntary Information Disclosure with

- a) Malafide intention; or
- b) Motive to harass the Company
- c) Motive to extort money from the Company

Explanation - For the above purpose, "employee" means any individual who during employment may become privy to information relating to violation of insider trading laws and files a Voluntary Information Disclosure Form under these regulations and is a director, partner, regular or contractual employee, but does not include an advocate.

9. MISCELLANEOUS

The Company may develop or procure an electronic method of administering the process under this Code. Designated Persons are advisable to make all the necessary disclosures and applications, if any through such specified electronic method including but not limited to seeking pre-clearance,

10. INTIMATION OF TRADE, ANNUAL DISCLOSURES, ETC.

- a) In case the Compliance Officer or his/her immediate relatives wants to trade in the securities of the Company, the Chief Financial Officer and in his absence the Executive Director of the company shall have the authority for taking all necessary steps under this code including but not limited to approving/disapproving pre-clearance, acknowledging intimation of trades executed, other disclosures, etc.
- b) The Company does not encourage the Designated Persons to deal in derivatives related to Company's securities at any time [such as put and/or call options, contracts for differences and other contracts intended to secure a profit or avoid a loss based on fluctuations in the price of Company's securities] because of the speculative nature of such instruments. However, if a Designated Person decides to trade in derivatives he will be under an obligation to abide by the Code and obtain pre-clearance as per clause 6 and consequent to the transaction, make requisite disclosures as per clause 7 of the Code being provided herein.
- c) Designated Persons must advise all Connected Persons/Immediate Relatives:
  - i. of the fact that they are covered by this Code and that this Code applies to them;
  - ii. of the closure of trading window during which the connected persons/immediate relatives should not deal in Securities of the Company;
  - iii. of any other periods when Designated Persons knows that he/she himself/herself is not free to deal in Securities of the Company under the provisions of this Code, unless his/her duty of confidentiality to the Company prohibits him/her from disclosing such periods;
  - iv. that the connected person/Immediate relatives must intimate him/her immediately after they have dealt in Securities of the Company;
  - v. Designated Persons must also take reasonable steps to prevent any dealings by or on behalf of Connected Persons and Dependents in Securities of the Company on considerations of a short-term nature.
- d) When a Designated Person acts as a trustee, the provisions of this Code will normally still apply as if he/she is also a beneficiary. This may not be the case if either he/she is only a nominee trustee without any discretion of his/her own or if his/her co-trustees act completely independently of the Designated Person.

- e) While a person may cease to be a Designated Person on retirement, resignation, etc. (and consequently would cease to be subject to this Code), he would continue to be a connected person for the purpose of the SEBI PIT Regulations for a period of 6 months from separation and is therefore required to abide with the SEBI PIT Regulations / Code.

11. PENALTY FOR CONTRAVENTION OF CODE OF CONDUCT

- a) Every Designated Person shall be individually responsible for complying with the provisions of the Code (including to the extent the provisions hereof are applicable to his/her immediate relative). Every Designated Person(s) who violates this Code shall in addition to any other penal action that may be taken by the Company pursuant to law, also be subject to disciplinary action.
- b) The penalty imposed/action by the Company may include but shall not be restricted to:
- (i) Reprimanding of defaulting Designated Person/Insider;
  - (ii) Ban from engaging in any trade of the securities or exercise of stock options of the Company;
  - (iii) Suspension from employment;
  - (iv) Ban from participating in all future employee stock option schemes including lapse of all existing options;
  - (v) No increment and/or bonus payment; and/or
  - (vi) Termination from employment;
  - (vii) Disgorgement of the gain accrued through the transactions in violation of the Code.
- c) In case it is observed by the Compliance Officer that there has been a violation of the Policy by any person, he/ she shall forthwith inform the Nomination and Remuneration Committee about the violation. The penal action will be initiated on obtaining suitable directions from the Nomination and Remuneration Committee.
- d) Any action taken pursuant to above will be independent of any action by SEBI in case of violation of Regulations. This could include civil as well as criminal prosecution against the Designated Persons and / or the Immediate Relatives, including any disgorgement of profits as SEBI may direct.

Explanation: For the purpose of this chapter, any acts, deeds, matters or things amounting to contravention / violation of Code of Conduct committed by or caused to be committed by Immediate Relatives of the Designated Person(s) shall be treated as the contravention / violation by such Designated Person(s) and hence shall be liable for disciplinary / penal action as contemplated under this chapter of the Code of Conduct.

- e) The action by the Company shall not preclude SEBI from taking any action in case of violation of SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015.

- f) In case the Company observes that there is a violation of this code and the Insider Trading Regulations, the company shall inform the Stock Exchanges promptly.
- g) Any amount collected by the Company under this clause shall be remitted to SEBI for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by the SEBI under the SEBI Act.
